FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SECOND KC MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO ASSAULT ON OFFICER

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Kansas City, Mo., man pleaded guilty in federal court today to assaulting a federal law enforcement officer during a vehicle pursuit.

Darris P. Mack, 19, of Kansas City, pleaded guilty before U.S. Chief Magistrate Judge John T. Maughmer this afternoon.

By pleading guilty, Mack admitted that he and co-defendant Christopher J. Cooper, 20, also of Kansas City, assaulted, resisted and impeded a federal law enforcement officer by use of force or a deadly and dangerous weapon on Feb. 9, 2005, in Kansas City. Specifically, Mack admitted that he and Cooper used a 1991 Chevrolet Caprice to assault, resist and impede a federal law enforcement officer who was attempting to arrest them.

On May 12, 2005, Cooper also pleaded guilty to assaulting, resisting and impeding a federal law enforcement officer.

At the time of the offense, Graves said, Cooper was driving the vehicle and Mack was in the front passenger seat.

Cooper's and Mack's encounter with law enforcement was initiated while officers were engaged in a surveillance of the defendants, Graves explained.

The law enforcement officer was attempting to apprehend Cooper and Mack in the vicinity of 4240 Holly St. and Westport Road when the assault occurred. At the time, law enforcement officers had used their vehicles to surround the co-defendants' vehicle. Once surrounded, Cooper used the vehicle to evade arrest, causing the officers to avoid being struck by running out of its path. During his attempts, Cooper struck a fire hydrant and backed into a brick wall, narrowly missing each of the officers on several occasions.

The co-defendants were eventually stopped after driving the vehicle over stop sticks that officers had placed in the street near the intersection of 35th and Wabash.

Cooper and Mack were originally charged in a criminal complaint filed in federal court on Feb. 10, 2005, in Kansas City. The criminal complaint was later replaced by an indictment that was returned by a federal grand jury on March 2, 2005, in Kansas City.

Under federal law, Cooper and Mack may each be subject to a maximum sentence of up to 20 years in federal prison without parole, plus a fine up to $250,000.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney K. Michael Warner. The case was investigated by the Kansas City, Mo., Police Department, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.
